

Get a big printer for a small price.

5 Reasons To Upgrade to the F770™

Print Big or Print Many

Print large parts or batches of smaller ones. With 13 cubic feet of build volume and 7 color options, the F770 gives you the space to be productive.

Lowest Cost Per Unit of Build Volume

The F770 makes large-scale 3D printing accessible with best-in-class build volume for the price. No need to scale parts down or glue parts together.

Easy to Install and Operate

Add more 3D printing capacity to your operation without extensive training or hiring highly skilled specialists. Virtually anyone can operate the F770 thanks to helpful software and intuitive controls.

Industrial-Grade Capabilities

Print your designs without limitations. Whether it's sparse-fill or solid parts, the F770's heated build chamber, variable layer thickness, and soluble support let you create based on your design, not the constraints of an outdated printer.

Proven FDM Performance

Avoid the hassle and downtime of less competent printers. The F770 is built on a 30-year lineage of Stratasys FDM development, resulting in proven reliability and repeatable performance.

Now, you can have a large-format printer without the premium price. Trade in your legacy Stratasys printer and

Get up to 35% off*
of a new F770 3D printer.

Don't miss this opportunity to add large-capacity printing with the reliability and consistency of Stratasys FDM technology.

Valid for bookings + shipments 01-Jan to 31-Mar 2024.

Not to be combined with any other offer. No substitutions.
No additional discounts allowed on this promotion.
*GrabCAD Print Pro required for full discount to apply.

Promotion

REPRESENTED BY:

Allegheny Educational Systems, Inc.
320 East 3rd Avenue
Tarentum, PA 15084
Phone: 800-232-7600
www.alleghenyedusys.com